PRESIDENT, PODHURST ORSECK, MIAMI

Podhurst Orseck is a specialty trial and appellate litigation firm. It serves as general litigation counsel to several major corporations. The firm's general tort practice specializes in representing claimants in aviation accidents, mass torts and products liability litigation. Among its firm's clients are hundreds of former football players in pending litigation against the National Football League over head injuries and other injuries sustained during play.

- EDUCATION University of Michigan (BBA), Columbia University (JD)
- BEST ADVICE The most important word is not happiness but gratefulness. You should be grateful because you were born in America – a country that allows you to achieve your dreams if you work hard. Be grateful that you are able to help the less fortunate, and make sure you do it.
- FAVORITE SONG My Way, by Frank Sinatra
- COMFORT FOOD Spaghetti and meatballs
